Eight years have passed Since I placed my Cherry seed in the grass. "Must have a tree of my own," I said, And watered it once and went to bed And forget but cherries have a way of growing Though know once's caring very much or knowing And suddenly that summer near the end of May I found a tree had come to stay, it was very small five months child lost in the tall grass running wild.
 Goats ate the leaves, the grass cutter scythe Spelt it apart and a monsoon belight shrivelled the slender stem... even so, Next spring I watched three new shoots grow, The young tree struggle upward trust its arms in a fresh fierce lust
 For light and air and Sun
